Report on World Breast Feeding Week August 2024

(Department of Community Health Nursing, SGRRIM&HS College of Nursing)

Breastfeeding is one of the most effective ways to ensure child health and survival and yet currently, fewer than half of infants under 6 months old are exclusively breastfeed. World Breastfeeding Week is officially celebrated on 1-7 August every year. World Breastfeeding Week is a global campaign to raise awareness on themes related to breastfeeding. Community Health Nursing department, SGRRIM&HS College of Nursing, has celebrated World Breast feeding week on 7th August 2024 at Rural Health Training Centre, Mothrowala. The theme for World Breastfeeding Week 2024 was “Closing the gap: Breastfeeding support for all.” The event was organized by Mrs. Sarita Dhasmana (Assistant professor), Mrs Arti Negi (Assistant professor), Mr. Sojan (Nursing tutor) and Ms. Anjali (Nursing tutor), Ms. Davender, Ms. Sosan and Ms. Chetana (Nursing tutor) under the supervision of Prof. G. Ramalakshmi Dean, SGRRU, SGRRIM&HS College of Nursing. As per our schedule on that day role play was done by B.Sc. Nursing 6th semester and ANM 2nd year students for the community breast feeding mothers at Rural Health Training Centre, Mothrowala.

Health education was given by ANM 1st year students through charts and posters to the community breast feeding mothers. The Programme was successfully done by Community Health Nursing Department, SGRRIM&HS, and College of Nursing.
