SGRRU IM&HS COLLEGE OF NURSING arranged a career counselling session with AK'S INSTITUTE FOR NURSES, DEHRADUN, UTTARAKHAND on 28/08/2024 at 2PM. The session was started by Ms. Rebecca Priti, Bahadur, Associate Professor with the welcoming and introduction of the delegates followed by welcome address given by Dr.G. Ramalakshmi, Dean, SGRRU IM&HS College of Nursing. The session was attended by 80 students from Basic B.Sc. Nursing 4th year.

The AK'S INSTITUTE FOR NURSES has been started since 2019. It is providing coaching to the nursing students for all the nursing competitive examinations. Ms. Anuroop Kaur apprised the students about her Coaching Institute and also how the classes are organized for the preparation of the competitive exams. Besides hard work, time management and focus on the line opted are also important aspects which has to be taken care of. The session also provided information about the scope and job opportunities for nurses in India as well as International countries like UK, USA, Australia, Germany, Canada, etc.

After that career counselling was provided by Mr. Lokesh, Senior Nursing Officer at AIIMS, Rishikesh. He shared his experiences and challenges while preparing for nursing competitive examinations and also recommended the candidates to join the institute. Later, Ms. Anuroop addressed the queries of all students regarding the examination preparation and procedure of applying for jobs.

The students found the session very interesting and informative and it was concluded with a question-answer session. At last Ms. Rebecca Priti, Bahadur, Class co-ordinator of Basic B.Sc. Nursing 4th year proposed the vote of thanks and felicitated the delegates of AK's Institute for Nurses.
