

CHRISTMAS AND NEW YEAR CELEBRATION

Date: 18TH DECEMBER

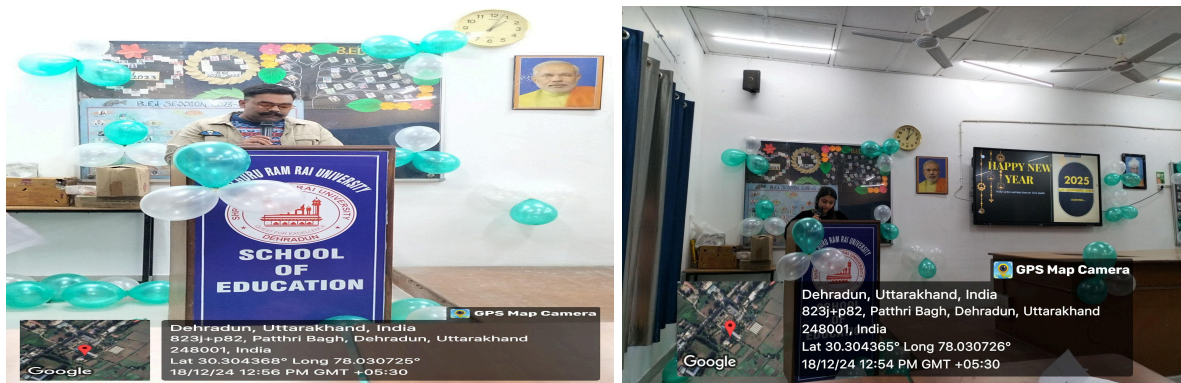

Venue: SGRR University (School of Education)

Organizers: STUDENT COUNCIL (SESSION 2024-2026)

Participants: B.Ed first year students (School of Education)

Report by: Kashish Vasudev, Historian

The School of Education ushered in the festive spirit with a grand celebration of Christmas and New Year, leaving an indelible mark on the hearts of all attendees. The beautifully decorated venue radiated warmth and joy, with glittering lights and vibrant decorations setting the perfect ambiance for the festivities. The event was a delightful blend of creativity, camaraderie, and cheer, embodying the spirit of the holiday season.

The program began with a dynamic introduction by the host, Meetali, whose charisma and enthusiasm captivated the audience from the very start. The celebration opened with a soul-stirring poem by Samar, eloquently capturing the essence of love, hope, and unity. The poem resonated deeply with everyone, setting a reflective and joyous tone for the day.

The mood was elevated further with a harmonious rendition of Christmas carols performed by Sister Binita, Shreya, Shrishti, and Ritika. Their melodious voices filled the air with festive cheer, spreading a sense of peace and goodwill among all. Following this, Sister Binita delivered a heartfelt message, inspiring the audience to embrace compassion, gratitude, and the true meaning of the holiday season.

The much-anticipated cake-cutting ceremony served as the centerpiece of the celebration, symbolizing togetherness and renewal. It was accompanied by an encouraging address from the Dean Dr. Malvika Sati Kandpal, who emphasized the importance of self-growth and the collective efforts needed to make the upcoming year a success. Their words left the audience feeling motivated and optimistic.

Adding to the excitement was a spirited dance session that saw students letting loose on the dance floor. The lively beats and infectious energy turned the event into a vibrant celebration, reinforcing the sense of unity and joy. This was followed by a series of engaging games that had everyone laughing and competing in good spirits, strengthening bonds and creating lasting memories.

As the celebration came to a close, the sense of fulfillment and happiness was palpable. It was a reminder of the power of community and shared experiences. The School of Education once again proved its dedication to creating memorable events that go beyond academics, celebrating the joy of togetherness and the promise of a brighter future.

