

Report on: Matrabhasha Diwas Celebration

Venue: SGRRU (SCHOOL OF EDUCATION)

By- Kashish Vasudev (Historian)

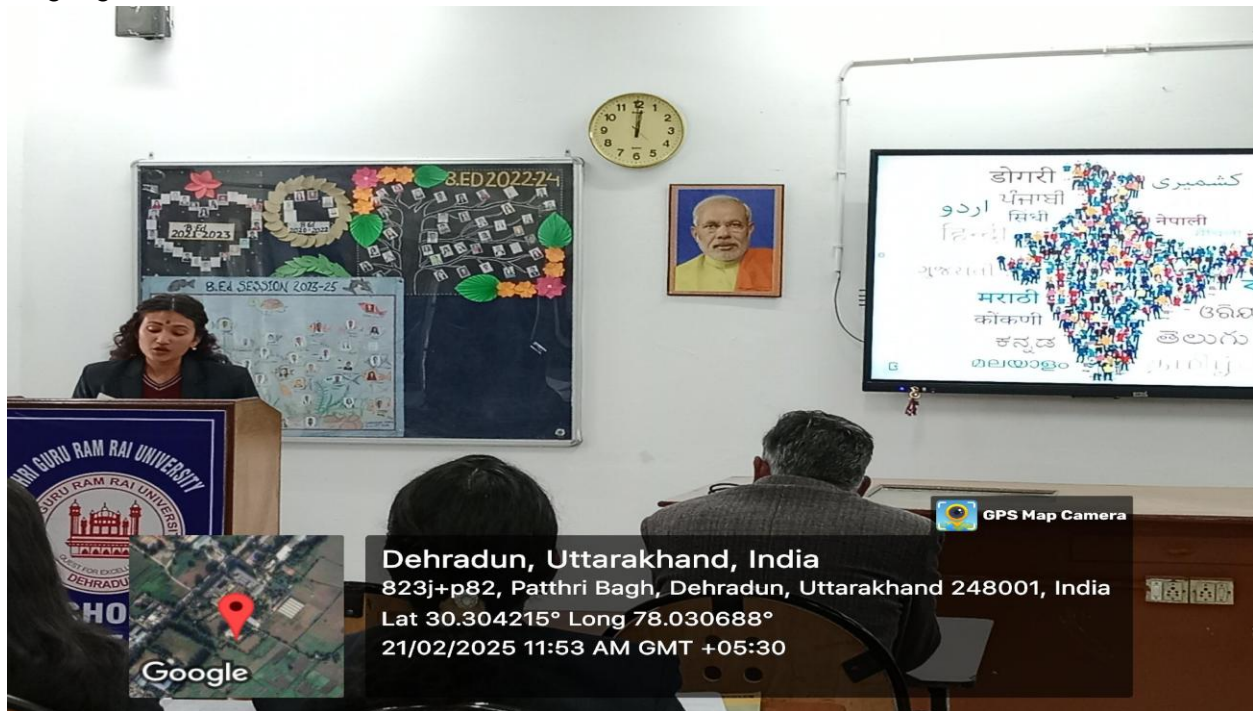

Matrabhasha Diwas was celebrated with great enthusiasm and cultural pride, emphasizing the significance of mother tongues in preserving linguistic heritage. The event was a tribute to the diversity of languages and their role in shaping identities and traditions.

The program commenced with Samar, who hosted the event and gave a warm introduction, highlighting the importance of Matrabhasha Diwas in promoting linguistic and cultural diversity. His words set the stage for an inspiring and enriching celebration.

Following the introduction, Neha captivated the audience with a beautiful Garhwali poem, reflecting the essence of her native language and culture. Shivani then took the stage and recited a heartfelt Hindi poem, resonating deeply with the audience. Saijal Negi also added to the literary ambiance by reciting another exquisite poem, showcasing the beauty of regional languages.

The musical segment of the event featured Swati, who sang a melodious song with a South Indian touch, further enriching the linguistic and cultural experience of the celebration. The event continued with impactful speeches by Shrishti and Swati, who eloquently spoke about the significance of Matrabhasha Diwas and the need to cherish and promote our native language.

As the event drew to a close, esteemed faculty, Dr. Balbir Kaur and Dr. Anand Kumar shared their words of wisdom, emphasizing the importance of linguistic diversity and cultural preservation. Their insightful thoughts left a lasting impression on the audience.

The celebration concluded with a group photograph, capturing the memorable moments of the event and the collective spirit of linguistic unity and cultural pride. The Matrabhasha Diwas celebration was a resounding success, leaving everyone with a renewed appreciation for their mother tongues and cultural heritage.